The Mansfields of Virginia.

The noble old Scottish House of Mansfields is first connected with the history of Va. in the name of Sir Robert Mansfield who is mentioned by Henning in his first Vol as one of the promotors of the Va. Colony in 1607 (Records of Va Hist. Society.

Sir Robert Mansfield was Knighted by the Earl of Essex for gallantry at the taking of Calais in 15-96; He was Captain of the Admiral's Ship in the fleet under said Earl of Essex sent to the Azores in 15-97, and Vice Admiral of Norfolk during Elizabeth's reign.; He represented Kings Lynn in Parliament during 1601 and destroyed several Spanish ships near Dover in 1602.

He was appointed Member of the King's Council for the Va Colony on Mar 9-1609. During the period of the Va. Company and its Charters, it was found expedient to have a resident Council in England. a "Perpetual Council" it was called.

On page 81 - Vol I. Henning is: "Such Councellors or other officers may be appointed amongst them to manage and direct their affairs, as are willing and ready to adventure with them, as also where dwellings are not so far remote from the city of London but they may at convenient times be ready at hand to give their advice and assistance."

On p. 89 mention is made that it was "not convenient for all adventurers to be called together" as the reason for the Perpetual Council in England.

At almost every mention of the names comprising this Council, the name of Sir Robert Mansfield appears. He was associated with Sir Thomas Smith who was Governor and Treasurer of the Va. Council for its first twelve years ending Nov 18-1618. His administration was confined to the Presidency of the Council and Co. in Eng. while the Colony was managed by a resident Council there. There was a separate Governor and Treasurer for the Council in Va. I suppose subservient to the one in England.

The Colonists grew tired of this by 1652 and it was probably about this time that "bring quite sure that the Colonists meditate a state of insurrection" Sir Robert Mansfield made his famous speech before the British Parliament: "If we do not kill the Americans, they will kill us" (Va. Hist. Mag. Vol 14.)

He married Anne Roper, Maid of Honor to the Queen in 1617 and "the wedding was celebrated at Denmark House, at the Queen's charge. - the Queen sending the wedded pair "a fair cupboard of plate"

The Will of Sir Robert Mansfield is recorded in County Kent, England - 1662,

He is said to have been the youngest son of Sir Edward Mansfield whose wife was Lady Jane Somerset, daughter of Henry, Earl of Worcester. They had another son Edward whose son John Mansfield is said by Mrs Tyler - (Mansfield Victorian) to have been temporary Gov. of the Jamestown Colony in 1614. but a careful search of Hennings records fails to show this.

His Will is recorded in London in 1673.

(200) * Richmond Land Office Book 5 - p. 235 - David Mansfield. 265-4 a. granted to David Mansfield and Robt Triston on N.
side of Rappahannock leo by Sir Wm
Berkeley Gov.
Land due for transportation of 13 persons.

Mrs Tyler is authority for the statement that David was his son and came to Va in the Bona Nova in 1623.

David He represented the "Plantation over against Jamestown" in the House of Burgesses and was afterwards Burgess at various periods for "Martin's Hundred," "Johnson's Neck" and the "Neck of Land" until his removal from York to Rappahannock Co.

In 1652 an Act by the Virginia House of Burgesses was for "taking the power in the hands of the resident Assembly in Va, and in that year Captain David Mansell represented James City Co. There is no mention as to why he was called Captain but the Order Book 1656-1664 of Rappahannock Co. says "David Mansell was a President Captain in Rappahannock Co.", He patented lands in Surry Co in 1635; in York in 1644, West moon land in 1654, & in Henrico and Rappahannock Counties.

Richmond Land Office Book 5 - p. 235 says 654 acres granted to David Mansfield and

Robert Tristow on N. side of Rappahannock
Co. by Sir. Wm. Berkely. Gov. Land due for transportation of Thirteen persons.
His Will, dated July 4-1672 was proved Sept.
22-1672, recorded in Rappahannock Co. Va
Records (1664-1673. p. 62) (Va. County Records Vol. 6. p 10) mentions daughter Mary, grandchild, Mansfield Blagrove and god-child David Tristow, no sons
mentioned in his Will though Wm.
Tyler (called the historian of the Mansfield Family) says that a son of David was William. The ~~gave~~ no proofs. Examination of Court records - deeds
etc. might prove this but we have no
proof, - though there is little doubt but that the family in Virginia were closely related to Sir Robert and descended from the Scottish Mansfields.
Dr. Pinckney French, descendant of Robert Clark Mansfield (son of Robert Mansfield.)
claimed that David was our ancestor and came to this country as Private-[illegible] to Lord Fairfax.

Wm Percy Thornton, descendant in line of Joseph Allen Mansfield (son of Robert) said he had often heard his father say that "our grandfather's father or grandfather came over as Lieut. to Lord Fairfax and was a younger son of Lord Mansfield or a near relation."

Family tradition indicates a connection in some way with name of Lord Fairfax, but and private papers of the latter might show this. - but as Lord Fairfax came to Va in 1646, neither Wm nor born about 1670, nor John b. 1705, could have been his secretary.

It is possible that, - as claimed by Dr. French, - that David Mansell was Lieut. to Lord Fairfax, but we have no proof that David was our ancestor.

From this point we can depend on the accuracy of the record, though the loss of Albemarle Co. Records from 1735-6 1783. makes it difficult to obtain complete record (J. E. McN)

Wm. Mansfield, said to be son of David Mansfield (spelled Mansell and Maunsell in old records) married Mary Allen. and one son was John Mansfield born 1700, married October 21-1737 Ann Waldo Gratty (b. 1720), daughter of Charshall Gratty (d. 1745) (See Gratty notes), and his first wife Ann Waldo (See Waldo notes) Charshall Gratty in his Will - (Spottsylvania Co. 1745) names daughter Ann Mansfield, and appoints son-in-law John Mansfield guardian for minor children.

This John Mansfield was in Colonial Service from Surry Co. (according to Mrs. Tyler) (So far - (August 1933) have not found proof of this. - J. E. McN.)

An article in Genealogical Columns of Richmond Times-Dispatch, of date: June 21-1914 (signed E. L. T.) says:

"George Holmes, Gentleman, of Leesville Co. Va., witness to the Will of John Mansfield, also witness to Will of John Charshall Gratty, or Grady Ann Waldo Gratty

(over)

married John Mansfield"

* Unable to find record of Will would be half brother to Robert, and son of Joseph.

* The British burned many records in Washington during War of 1812, including returns of First Census of Va. Many Va County Records were burned, among them those of Albemarle Co for the years 1738 to 1780 and it is during this period we would expect to find many of the records concerning Joseph G. Mansfield and his family.

Joseph G. Mansfield, son of John and Ann Walds (Grady) married first, listed in the first Census of Albemarle Co. Va 1783-1790, as the head of a family of 11 whites, was son of John and Ann Walds (Grady) Mansfield. (Family records)

He was twice married: first to Emma (or Sarah?) Herndon. 2nd to Melinda (?) Harrison of Winchester Va, (said by a descendent to have been sister, or relative of President Wm Henry Harrison)

Mr E. M. Rust, a gt. gr son of Robert Mansfield (son of Joseph) states: "I find the following recorded in a book used by my Father as a family record: 'Robert Mansfield of Orange Co. Va, son of Joseph and grandson of John had the following

* Mrs Annie Mans Judd's letter also dated Dist. Wm " and a ~~Jefferson~~ Lafayette. Their dau. and — Johnson, and their dau. and — Shields.

family - and among the children of Robert Mansfield of Orange Co. Va. Another descendant: Mrs Minnie K Fielder corroborates this as of "Family Bible record"

A letter from Mrs Annie M. Mansfield of Bedford Co. Va states: "My husband's Father was Benjamin Harrison Mansfield and his Mother was Elizabeth Lumpkin. Benj. Harrison Mansfield's Father was married twice. first to Miss Herndon, second to Miss Harrison. He had a half brother named Robert and two own brothers. One named Wm. Lawrence, who wed a Miss Jefferson and another whose name I do not remember. There were three sisters one was a Walker, and lived in London Co. Frankie and Elizabeth never married." # Benjamin Harrison Mansfield and the orphan children of Wm " are the only ones who lived in Bedford Co". #

There is a tradition in the family that Robert had an older brother who was carried away on a British transport and never heard of again, leaving a young wife and two children. I have wondered if these "orphan children of Wm." could be the children & the "boy" carried away by the British.

It is also tradition that "Roberts Mother died three weeks after his birth" and "his step mother raised him". Altho one descendant says Roberts step mother was named Melinda, I have thought it might have been Nancy Harrison. the name given to one of his daughters.

In 1791 Joseph G. Mansfield appoints his "son Lawrence my true and lawful Atty" to transact certain business for him (Albemarle Co. Records Book 10 - p. 197.)

Apr. 7 - 1787 Lawrence Mansfield witnessed the Will of Thomas Moorman, St. Annes Parish, Albemarle Co. Va. (~~Book 9 - p. 131~~)

~~Book 9 - p. 131~~ - Apr 14 - 1785 - ~~Book 9 - p. 134~~ Deed from John Mansfield and Sarah his wife to Samuel Mansfield 100 acres in Albemarle Co. Va, Va. Co. Records 7 - 114) ~~Apr 14 - 1785 -~~

Book 12. p 23-5. Deed from Samuel Mansfield and wife Martha, to Robert Mansfield. 65 acres. All of Albemarle

Co. March 14 - 1793

Above statements and records would indicate that the children of Joseph G. Mansfield were as follows:
By first wife —— Herndon.
(1) Robert Mansfield,
(2) Possibly another son — (William?)

By second wife:
Melinda (?) or Nancy (?) Harrison.
(1) John Mansfield. md. Sarah ——.
2. Lawrence Mansfield
3 Samuel Mansfield. md. Martha ——
4 Benjamin Harrison Mansfield
md. Elizabeth Lumpkin.
5 —— md. Mr. Walker
6. Frankie Mansfield. d. unm.
7 Elizabeth Mansfield d. unm.

One of Irvin Cobb's short stories is written about this man — Wm. Jackson. Mother recognizes the story instantly and told me much more about the family —
